Update on key messages

- Two major advocacy lines for the humanitarian operation as of Q4 are Livelihoods/Self-reliance and Better Shelters/Structures inside camps. This covers skills-building opportunities and weather and fire-resistant shelter materials.

Update on Donor Missions

- The planned incoming missions to CXB are on the external visit tracking sheet. The humanitarian partners also expect a media visit from the European media, led by the ECHO, by the end of October 2023.

Update on HL visit guidance

- The ISCG is now updating the HL visit guidance. This version will also reflect lessons from recent visits, ie. KSA, Japan, etc.
- ECHO's new mission security protocol is in place. If no agency is leading the role of security FP for any particular ECHO visit, UNDSS kindly agreed to assume this role - so their names can be indicated on the relevant ECHO mission security forms.

Key UN and Special days

- UN Day 24 October: UNCG in Dhaka will develop their comms plan.
- 16 October: Food Day, guidance will be given by FAO
- Other relevant dates are listed below

Update on the RRRB logo

- The guidelines on using the RRRB logo are in use. If ISCG adopts any changes, all relevant parties will be notified.

AOB

- GHO: For this year's Global Humanitarian Overview, colleagues must share their relevant communication materials by 15 October.
