Human Trafficking Analysis Dashboard

April-June 2022

63

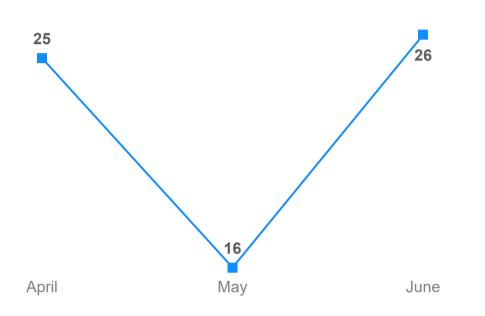

Refugees identified

The Dashboard reflects available data about Rohingya refugees victims of human trafficking that ATWG members have identified, referred and assisted (122 refugees identified between January and June 2022)*. The data on this Dashboard is generated from information communicated by ATWG members and should not be interpreted as showing the extent of prevalence of human trafficking in the camps. These statistics may be subject to change.

79% of identified victims are male and 21% female

Number of identified victims by Month

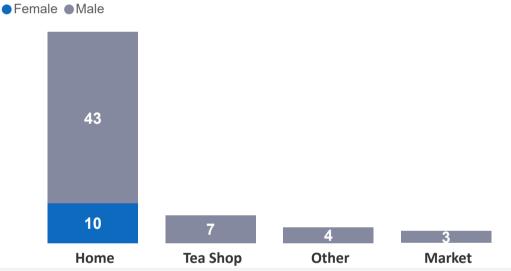

Type of Trafficking/Form of Exploitation

98% of the reported cases were victims of labour trafficking

Place of Recruitment by Gender

Visit/holiday/vacation

Education Other

Mode of Release

Recruiter

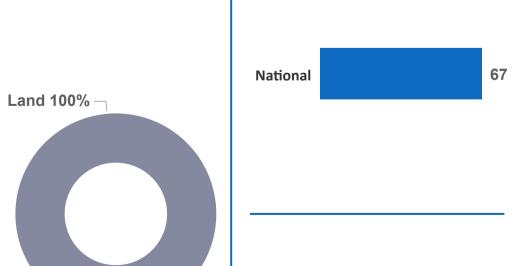

Work (earn money)

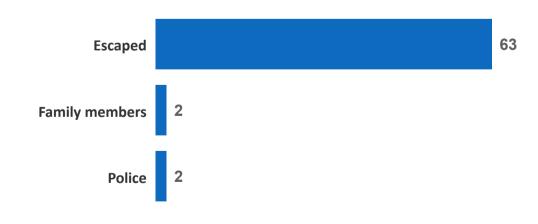

Promises During Recruitment

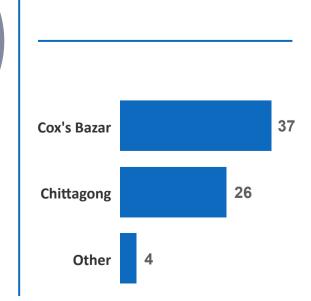

The recruitment or initial engagement into the trafficking situation occurs mostly while refugees are at "home" in their shelters

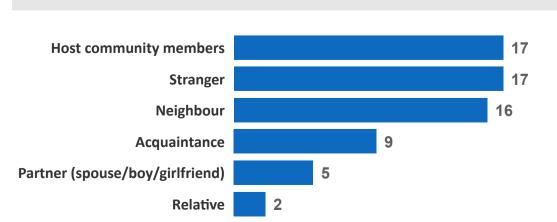

96% of cases reported involved promises of work made at the recruitment stage. In most cases, the activity during exploitation was in agriculture, construction, domestic work, livestock raising, and day labor

Mode of Transport and Intended Destination

Other