

80 Refugees identified

11 Women

61 Men

6 Boys

2 Girls

The Dashboard reflects available data about Rohingya refugees' victims of human trafficking that ATWG members have identified, referred and assisted (80 refugees identified between July and September 2022) *. The data on this Dashboard is generated from information communicated by ATWG members and should not be interpreted as showing the extent of prevalence of human trafficking in the camps. These statistics may be subject to change.

84% of identified victims are male and 16% female

Number of identified victims by Month

Type of Trafficking/Form of Exploitation

89% of the reported cases were victims of labour trafficking.

Place of Recruitment by Gender

The recruitment or initial engagement into the trafficking situation occurs mostly while refugees are at "home" in their shelters

Promises During Recruitment

88% of cases reported involved promises of work made at the recruitment stage. In most cases, the activity during exploitation was in agriculture, construction, domestic work, livestock raising, and day labor.

Mode of Transport and Intended Destination

Mode of Release

Recruiter

